

WOMEN OF INITIATIVE 2021 NOMINATION FORM

The Women's Foundation of Collier County annually celebrates exemplary women, who, through their leadership and dedication to philanthropic initiatives are an inspiration to all women seeking to make a difference in Collier County.

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE MONDAY, OCTOBER 1, 2020 AT 4 PM (EST)

WHO IS A WOMAN OF INITIATIVE?

- She is actively volunteering and leading important philanthropic efforts that benefit the Collier County community (not other geographic areas, although she may reside outside of Collier County).
- She is a leader, having held important leadership roles at one or more nonprofit organization(s) within Collier County.
- She makes transformational and lasting contributions through her volunteerism that are above and beyond her (current or past) professional obligations.
- She values the importance of volunteerism and philanthropy and advocates for others to become involved in important community causes.
- She is not a current WFCC board, committee member, or CFCC staff member. Her volunteer service is not to a political campaign nor is she a paid Executive Director of a nonprofit.

WHAT IS A COMPLETE APPLICATION?

- Include all pertinent information that could aid the Nominating Committee in making the best determination of the candidate's eligibility.
- Additional information may be added to the application to provide a complete description of an individual's accomplishments if needed.
- Attach the candidate's resume if available.
- The number of nominations a candidate receives will not weigh in favor of the candidate; the quality of the nomination and the candidates' contributions will take precedence.
- Incomplete applications will not be considered. Each field below is required.

Please direct all questions and completed applications to Lindsey Touchette at the Community Foundation of Collier County on or before Monday, October 1, 2020 at 4 PM. She can be reached at (239) 649-5000 or Ltouchette@cfcollier.org.
